SELECTED DIGITAL LEARNING PROJECT

Digital Femalepreneurship Game | Independent doctoral research | Friedrich-Schiller-Universität Jena | Oct 2021–Dec 2025

- Designed a digital entrepreneurship learning experience for university students through learning needs analysis and serious-game prototyping across a four-study doctoral research programme.
- Translated risk assessment, resilience and gender-related entrepreneurial decisions into interactive scenarios; refined the prototype through iterative alpha testing.
- Evaluated usability and learning experience in Germany and Türkiye using quantitative and qualitative pre-post data and usability instruments.
- Independently managed research design, implementation, data collection, analysis and dissertation writing under academic supervision.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Research Associate and Instructor | Friedrich-Schiller-Universität Jena | Oct 2021–Present

- Designed and facilitated bachelor's and master's courses in adult education and research methods in German and English, adapting activities to different audiences and preparing teaching sessions.
- Coordinated course schedules and teaching sessions and tracked student attendance to support delivery.
- Redesigned an adult-education course into a practice-oriented master's seminar in winter 2024, converting theory into applied activities.
- Reviewed and revised AI-generated learning materials for factual accuracy, source reliability and alignment with learning objectives.
- Mentored research-methods students through paper development, supporting two student-led conference papers presented at ECER 2023.
